Welcome

Welcome to New Balance Nationals Outdoor!

We are very pleased that you can be part of the 28th running of this event.

Over 60% of the members of the Olympics and World Championship U.S. teams over the past 20 years have competed at this meet. By qualifying, you have joined an exclusive club.

We want to acknowledge, as well, your parents, coaches and friends. They have played an integral role in your success. We also want to thank our outstanding medical team led by Dr. Rob Jones and Dr. Liz Wheeler. They are second to none, with a world-class team of Physicians, Physical Therapists, Athletic Trainers, Chiropractors and Masseuses. You will get no better care at any event, track and field or otherwise.

This is our 14th year at North Carolina A+T State University, and our ninth year with New Balance as our title sponsor. The meet would not be possible without the special nature of these two partners. So run fast, jump far and throw long. But, most of all, compete well. We wish you all the best in achieving your potential.

National High School Track and Field Hall of Fame Inauguration

A Memorable Evening at the New York Athletic Club

By Steve Underwood

The inaugural National High School Track and Field Hall of Fame induction ceremony was just about everything any T&F fan, historian, athlete, coach, or official could have hoped for. The first class of 30 inductees was honored during a grand ceremony on Thursday, March 8, 2018 – the eve of this year’s New Balance Nationals Indoor – at the New York Athletic Club. The ceremony was a dream come true for the National Scholastic Athletic Foundation, which had announced the establishment of the Hall of Fame the previous summer, and, after months of planning, finally saw the efforts come to fruition – despite a winter storm that scrambled travel plans.

The evening began with a delightful pre-ceremony media session and cocktail hour that allowed for introductions and reunions, as well as spontaneous photos and interviews. Imagine seeing together, and getting to chat with, mid-late ‘70s T&F legends like TSU Tigerbelle teammates Kathy McMillan and Chandra Cheeseborough, or San Francisco 49er teammates Renaldo Nehemiah and Michael Carter, ... or meeting the one and only Gerry Lindgren, ... or feeling the historic bounty of the presence of deceased inductees’ family members, like

Gina Strachan and Brook Doire (granddaughters of Jesse Owens and Betty Robinson), ... or being in the radiant presence of Allyson Felix, Class of 2003 prep sensation who still is writing the final chapters of her career as a 17-time Olympic and World Championships gold medalist.

After the opening, everyone adjourned to the adjacent banquet room to enjoy a world-class dinner and then to witness the introduction and procession of the inductees. Introductory remarks by NYAC president James Rafferty and NSAF board member Josh Rowe set the stage for the proceedings. Mr. Rafferty’s comments made evident how apropos the NYAC was for hosting the event, with the Club’s legacy of members in the T&F community and with Mr. Rafferty’s own passion for the sport. Mr. Rowe aptly conveyed the magnitude of the occasion as well as great gratitude for all those who made it happen.

Eleven inductees were personally present for the induction, including (in order of presentation) history-making hurdler Renaldo Nehemiah, long jump record-setter Kathy McMillan, distance legends Gerry Lindgren and Lynn Bjorklund, T&F internet pioneer John Dye, masterful journalist Ed Grant, record-smashing miler Alan Webb, shot put legend Michael Carter, barrier-breaking sprinter Chandra Cheeseborough, coaching great Don Norford, and current Olympic great Allyson Felix. Three other living inductees – history-making distance runners Jim Ryun and Mary Decker, and shot put great Dallas Long – were unable to attend, but expressed their gratitude via newly recorded video clips.

In eight other cases, family members were on hand to accept for inductees who had passed away.

- Romel Mathias, for her father, Olympic decathlon champ Bob Mathias;
- Gina Strachan, for her grandfather, culture changing sprinter Jesse Owens;
- Tina Marie Wood, for her grandfather, versatile sprinter Frank Wykoff;
- Cassandra Grant, for her aunt, barrier-busting high jumper Alice Coachman;
- Barbara Gallagher, for her daughter, distance great Kim Gallagher;
- Tom Newton, for his father, XC coaching legend Joe Newton;
- Brook Doire, for her grandmother, history-making sprinter Betty Robinson;
- Linda Prefontaine, for her brother, iconic distance star Steve Prefontaine.

To honor the remaining deceased eight inductees – sprint great Willie White, decathlon and hurdle standout Milt Campbell, sprint stars Eddie Morris and Helen Stephens, super high jumper Cornelius Johnson, early vault star Lee Barnes, barrier-breaking sprinter Sol Butler, and early distance star Ted Meredith – attendees enjoyed outstanding video presentations for each, including historic photos and video clips, a variety of interviews (both recent and historic), and other footage that brought the inductees to life.

Rich Jayne produced videos for NSAF featuring all 30 inductees. Those interviewed especially for the inductee videos included track and field historians on the selection committee, such as Dave Johnson, Jack Pfeifer, and Marc Bloom. The foregoing selectors were present for the ceremony, as were selectors Walt Murphy, and, of course, the NSAF's Joe Lanzalotto, Jim Spier, and Tracy Sundlun. Also serving on the 11-member selection committee were Mike Kennedy, Marjorie Larney, Bob Jarvis, and Jack Shepard. The evening's presenters included selectors, NSAF staff members, and others from the track and field world.

The historic evening concluded with a great sense of joyous acknowledgement and recognition for the inductees and their families, a mission well-accomplished for the selectors and NSAF staff, and the overriding feeling that this was just the beginning – with many great Hall of Fame inductions to come! ■

“Track and field is one of the greatest sports we have”

How Things Work Out

Al Jennings

Michael Byrnes Coach of the Year Award

It's interesting how things will work out, sometimes unexpectedly, for those good folks with good intentions and special gifts. Coach “King” Al Jennings is a good example.

As a track and field athlete at West Philadelphia HS, and then at Maryland State University (now UMD-Eastern Shore) in the 1960s, Al Jennings competed in the sprints, relays, pole vault, and even cross-country – among other things. “I was a jack of all trades,” he says now, with a laugh. “And there weren’t a lot of people of color running distances back then.” Or vaulting, for that matter.

Jennings had considered doing graduate work in Newark, New Jersey, but he says the setting reminded him too much of Philadelphia. But he found another graduate program at Montclair State U. that worked out much better, and in 1969 he landed himself a permanent substitute teacher job at Trenton Central HS. There, he encountered Central’s great T&F coach, Holland Moore, and before Jennings knew it, he’d been enlisted as an assistant coach.

Little did Coach Jennings know that more than four decades later, he’d have established a legacy of his own, guiding scores of champions at TCHS and his own Trenton Track Club.

Coach Jennings has coached TCHS athletes in track events from the 400m to the 2 mile (and the pole vault, of course), and in cross country, Trenton Central’s program kept progressing through the 1970s, reaching an early peak of historic proportions by 1978, when a long sprint/middle distance crew of Fred Gore, Darrell Jeffress,

Andrew Bing, Ron Singletary, and Aubrey McKithen emerged to blaze a 4x400, 4x800 double at the Penn Relays – in the span of 14 minutes – which had never been seen before. The crew set meet records of 3:12.2 and 7:39.5 in the prelims that would stand for seven years each – all after a heroic runner-up DMR finish – and then went on to win both finals in short order.

McKithen was named the Outstanding Athlete of the Meet and the group was inducted into the Penn Relays Wall of Fame this past April.

Success would continue for Trenton Central through Coach Moore’s retirement in 2000 and as Coach Jennings took the reins of the program. The next 15 years or so would see great athletes like Wendy Vereen, Jermaine Collier, Devon Bond, Zyaire Clemes, and many others shine for TCHS at the state and national levels.

Coach Jennings retired as the TCHS Head Coach in 2010, but he continued to work with the program. Meanwhile, way back in 1973, he had launched the Trenton Track Club. “We launched the club because we were seeing kids going to track camps and not learning the things we thought they could learn.”

Two of Jennings’ most recent protégés have been Athing Mu (Class of 2020) and her older brother, Malual (’18). Athing, who runs exclusively for the club, made big waves last year at NBNO, taking second in the 800 final as a freshman. Then, this past winter as a sophomore, she won the event at NBNI, clocking 2:06.59.

“She’s really very smart,” says Coach Jennings. “She understands the sport better than most coaches. Her idols are Joetta Clark [legendary New Jersey Olympian] and Sammy Watson [Texas A&M freshman who has captured multiple NBNO championships and is a 2:01 800 runner].”

Coach Jennings has a deep love for the sport – for all sports, really – and the way they can positively affect the lives of youth. This is what has kept him at it for nearly 50 years.

“Track and field is one of the greatest sports we have,” he says. “It’s a sport where almost any kid can be successful to some degree.” ■

Wanting to Do Things the Right Way

Billy Edrington

John Chaplin Honorary Referee

Ever since Billy Edrington moved up to become Associate Athletics Director for Game Operations and Facilities at North Carolina A&T State University in 1997, principles espoused by then-A&T head track coach Roy “Spaceman” Thompson have remained burned in Edrington’s brain.

“The biggest thing is creating a culture of wanting to do things the right way; once you’ve established that, it’s that much easier to follow through,” Edrington remembers. “Coach Thompson always emphasized treating everyone right – officials, volunteers, medical staff, everyone. If you do that, they’ll keep coming back.”

The National Scholastic Athletics Foundation first came to A&T to host what was then Nike Outdoor Nationals in 2005. What the NSAF saw at Irwin Belk Track inside of Aggie Stadium, what the NSAF experienced, how the Foundation was hosted and treated – indeed, the entire experience has made the Foundation want to keep coming back. Now 2018 is the 14th year at A&T for what is now New Balance Nationals Outdoor, drawing more than 5,000 athletes each year. Some folks who have never been to the meet before, from outside the state, are unaware of the school and its facility – and speculate on its capacity to host such a major meet. But when they arrive in Greensboro and step inside, they speculate no more.

Thanks to Edrington and his staff, Aggie Stadium and Irwin Belk Track have few peers in the nation when it comes to hosting a large-scale track and field meet. The venue has the Mondo Super X Performance track; a seating capacity of more than 21,000; and a state-of-the-art video scoreboard. NBNO is just one of several major meets hosted here, a list that includes the NCAA East Regionals, the USATF Junior Olympics (which return to A&T again this summer), the International Friendship & Freedom Games, the MEAC Outdoor Championships, and the North Carolina (NCHSAA) State Championships.

As for Edrington himself, he began working at A&T as a student athletic trainer in 1981. In 1986, he became an assistant women’s basketball coach under head coach Tim Abney – eventually helping lead the Aggies to become the first MEAC women’s team to earn an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament in 1994. Then Edrington was named the facilities director in 1997.

For NBNO (and other such events), Edrington serves as the A&T liaison and facility contact for the NSAF, as well as for the City of Greensboro. His responsibilities also include working with officials, timers, parking attendants, ticket-takers, custodial staff, volunteers, coaches and sponsors to ensure meets are conducted to the highest of standards.

In 2014, the UNC System Staff Organizations honored Edrington with the Erskine Bowles Award. Earl M. Hilton III, Director of Athletics at A&T, noted that meets like NBNO and the JOs bring 1000s of youth and their families to the university, “where these future college students are exposed to the benefits and opportunities A&T offers.” He commented on the size and scope of the events and said, “Billy is there when they start and there when they finish.”

Edrington gives lots of credit to the A&T Administration, as well as to “the outstanding staff over at the physical plant in the DeHuguley Building” for putting on the many high-end events.

As for the NSAF, he says, “It’s a pleasure working with the NSAF because of the first class way they do things and how they’re organized. They’ve always been easy to work with and want to do things in a first class way, just like we do.” ■

JavFest 2018 –

June 29 - July 1

The NSAF is preparing to host its 4th annual American JavFest on Friday-Sunday, June 29-July 1, 2018 at East Stroudsburg High School in Pennsylvania.

As has been the case with most previous JavFests, the weekend will include competition at every age and ability level, plus great teaching and educational opportunities. This year, the Youth (Under-15) and High School athletes compete Friday, followed by the Open/Elite athletes on Sunday. Saturday will be "Javelin School Day," with an opportunity to learn from some of the world's best coaches. Meanwhile, the popular Roundtable Panel/Open Discussion will take place Friday night, featuring a chance to learn, hear amazing stories, and ask questions of these same mentors. Speaking of which, two-time Olympian Sean Furey is one of the featured guests this year.

The JavFest is intended to be an American version of the great Pihtipudas Javelin Carnival in Finland, sharing the joys of the javelin with throwers of all ages and allowing athletes, coaches and fans of the sport to be fully engaged educationally, socially and competitively.

Last year's JavFest was highlighted by four thrilling competitions, including the Elite Men as Cyrus Hostetler twice beat the IAAF World Championships qualifying standard with his winning 272-8. He revved up the crowd, justified their cheers with his first big throw, and then celebrated with yells, fist pumps, and high-fiving fans during a joyful sprint down the right side of the sector.

Ariana Ince captured the Elite Women's competition with her 201-4, becoming the 7th U.S. woman over 200 feet and eventually qualifying for Worlds as well. The High School titles went to Project Javelin Gold athletes Roman Mitchell (207-6) and Dana Baker (169-2).

Record-setting Deanna Price Inspires Team NSAF at Iron Wood

By Steve Underwood

The Iron Wood Throws Classic is in its sixth year. Known as the Chicagoland Throws from 2013-2015, the NSAF designed the elite throwing event not only to bring together some of the top preps in the country, but also to provide a chance to witness and compete alongside some of the best American throwers at the Olympic and World Championships levels.

Anyone who witnessed Deanna Price's performance in this year's event (June 2 in Coeur D'Alene, Idaho), knows that Iron Wood is a very special opportunity.

Price, for years one of the top Americans in the hammer throw, used Iron Wood to smash the American record with a throw of 254 feet, 9 inches – breaking the previous record by more than three feet and becoming the 5th longest thrower in global history. The more than a dozen Team NSAF shot putters, and hammer, javelin and discus throwers present at Iron Wood will never forget Price's epic throw. Price graciously posed for photos with our prep admirers, including Veronica Fraley, Makayla Kelby and Faith Ette (see photo).

Meanwhile, Team NSAF athletes were outstanding:

- Javelin: Zechariah Blake and Lillian Hill

The boys were led by the NSAF Project Javelin Gold's Zech Blake, who nearly PR'ed with his 206-9, followed by teammates Roman Mitchell (203-6) and Joe Nizich (185-0) – with Zach Annanie finishing 3rd with 200-9. For the girls, Project Javelin's Lillian Hill had a seasonal best 143-9, while teammate Dana Baker had to miss the meet with an injury. Ariana Ince (194-11) defended her title for the USATF women, while Michael Shuey was the men's champ at 243-7.

- Discus: Shelby Moran and Joshua Sobota

U.S. leader Shelby Moran threw 167-11 to edge Makayla Kelby (167-7) and Veronica Fraley (165-7) for Team NSAF's girls. Joshua Sobota threw a US #4 PR 200-9 on his final attempt to beat US #2 Patrick Larrison (197-1) on the boys' side. Andrew Evans (216-8) and Rachel Dincoff (200-2) were the USATF winners.

- Shot Put: Tyson Jones and Veronica Fraley

Tyson Jones matched his US-leading PR with a 71-8.25 heave, ahead of Sobota's US#3 68-10 PR. Then Veronica Fraley got a big US#3 PR 49-5.5 for the Team NSAF girls. She improved her best by two feet. Fraley was followed by Kelby at 46-0.5. The USATF winners were Curt Jensen (69-4) and Daniella Hill (59-1.5).

- Hammer: Ian Frost and Shelby Moran

US #4 Ian Frost topped the Team NSAF boys with his 207-3, followed by Larrison at 196-7. US #2 Shelby Moran hit 185-1 for Team NSAF girls. Sean Donnelly (243-5) joined Price in the winner's circle for the USATF athletes.

The NSAF is extremely grateful to the Iron Wood Throwers Camp, its founder Bart Templeman, and current director Jarred Rome for hosting Team NSAF at their wonderful facility! ■

Team NSAF Shines During First Bahamas Meet

By Steve Underwood

Whether the venue has been Puerto Rico, Cuba, or the Bahamas – and regardless of whether the competition has been modest or stellar – Team NSAF always has stepped up to the plate and performed with effort and class in its annual Caribbean meet. And 2018 – competing for the first time at the Frederick Bastian Track and Field Classic at the Grand Bahama Sports Complex in Freeport – was no exception.

Team NSAF had competed previous years in its own Caribbean Scholastic Invitational (CSI), launched in 2006, then in Havana, Cuba in a dual with Cuban Youth and Juniors (2015) and at the Memorial Barrientos (2016 and '17).

Twenty-eight outstanding prep track and field athletes from 13 states – selected several weeks earlier and many of whom had competed in previous New Balance National meets – convened with NSAF staff and coaches May 30 in Ft. Lauderdale, and then took the short flight to Freeport the following day.

Based at the Grand Lucayan hotel, Team NSAF took to the Grand Bahama track on Friday, June 1 for a light pre-meet workout and relay exchange practice, and then returned the following morning for the day-long completion – joined by nearly 300 Bahamian athletes, and benefitting from a warm day with no precipitation.

Here are some of the biggest Team NSAF highlights:

- A US-leading 177-0 javelin by Project Javelin Gold's Skylar Ciccolini (#4 all-time), led a team throws sweep, which also featured teammate Sam Hankins (jav), Patrick Piperi (shot put) and Chloe Lindeman (shot put).
- The 4x100m relays double by Team NSAF's boys (40.44 by Gatlin Lawson, Charles Lewis, Andre Turay and Caleb Jackson) and girls (46.39 by Aliya Wilson, Ally Henson, Darci Khan and Kailei Collins), continued a streak of no dropped batons by Team NSAF since CSI began.

- Turay (PR 13.86) and Khan in the 100H, then Rayniah Jones and Dominick Houston-Shepard in the 400H all took strong hurdles victories. Myles Marshall (both hurdles) and Henson (100H in a rerun race with teammate Khan) also performed well.
- Caleb Jackson and Wilson (both 100m), and then Matthew Boling and Collins (both 200m) all took short dash triumphs, with Lewis and Lawson (boys 100m) powering in just behind.
- US top-5 performers Nick Ramey (46.69) and Meghan Hunter (53.30) ran fast, victorious 400s, followed by strong runs by teammates Randolph Ross (boys) and Jan'Tajiah Ford, Nicole Payne, and Dajour Miles (girls).
- Project Triple Jump's Titiana Marsh and Tosin Alao were an impressive 1-2 horizontal jump sweep, matched by a 1-2 long jump finish by Boling and Kevin Snyder. A thrilling high jump "jump-off" saw C. J. McBride outlast teammate Randolph Ross.
- Hugh Brittenham (800m and 1,500m) and Brynne Sumner (800m) dominated the middle distance.

Equally important was the fact that Team NSAF had the bounty of guidance from Coaches Paul Limmer, Carmen Jackson, Macka Jones and Sports Psychologist Dr. Margaret Ottley; and treatment from the greatest medical staff in the sport – including Claudia "Sparky" Chapel, Performance Specialist, BCMT, ISP; Dr. Emily Krodel; and Marissa Caldwell, AT – and that everyone bonded together over the four-day trip! ■
