

The International Civil Rights Center and Museum is a place that all visitors to Greensboro simply must visit. The authentic setting of one of the key events in the American Civil Rights Movement is preserved there along with a stunning interactive presentation. Students of NBNO-host school, NCA&T, were at the heart of the Woolworth's sit-in protest. Taking the tour is enlightening, uplifting, and humbling as history comes alive before you. It is a personal and educational experience that you will treasure!

All NBNO 2019 athletes with a competitor bib number plus coaches and fans with a wristband will receive a $2 discount on the admission price. You must have your competitor bib and/or your wristband with you to receive the discount. Please make advanced reservations for best results. Groups of 10 or more are required to reserve their tour in advance. Go to <https://www.sitinmovement.org/338-2/> or call 800-748-7116.

The National Scholastic Athletics Foundation is promoting the ICRCM as a public service and is receiving no portion of the proceeds. We just love it there and think everyone should get to see it!
